“FAREWELL 2023-24 “

The farewell party organized for the final year students at the college campus lawn, against the backdrop of the main building, on the evening of May 6th, 2024, was a resounding success. Faculty members were delighted to bid farewell to this batch in a truly memorable manner.

The festivities commenced with the auspicious Sarasvati Pooja, followed by the felicitation of esteemed dignitaries. Dr. C.C. Handa, our esteemed Director, was honored alongside the Vice Principal, Dr. Nilesh Bodne, and the Heads of various departments, including Dr. Nilesh T. Gole (CSE), Prof. Vaibhav Bankar (ME), Prof. Kiran Kimmatkar (EE), and Dr. Akshad Vaidya (Science and Humanities), along with the parents of the final year students.

Dr. C.C. Handa, in his address, extended heartfelt wishes to the final year students for their future endeavors. He expressed his confidence that they would continue to excel in upcoming university exams. The Principal, invoking the timeless wisdom of Swami Vivekananda, encouraged students to pursue their dreams relentlessly, emphasizing the importance of focus and determination in achieving success.

Vice Principal Dr. Nilesh Bodne shared personal anecdotes to motivate the students, stressing the symbiotic relationship between teachers and students in steering the path to success. Prof. Vaibhav Bankar lauded the discipline and readiness of our students to face industry challenges head-on, while Dr. Nilesh T. Gole inspired students to embrace the lessons of the past and look forward with optimism and determination.

The highlight of the evening was the recognition of faculty members for their outstanding contributions, with our institution being honoured as the Best College in the DBATU session 2023-24. Dr. C.C. Handa was further distinguished as the Best Educationalist of the Year from the Society for Technologically Advanced Materials of India, a testament to his visionary leadership and unwavering dedication to education and research.

The event was further adorned with cultural activities, a fashion show, and games, culminating in the selection of Mr. Farewell and Ms. Farewell, Vaibhav Nagarale and Naina Bhusari, respectively. A photo booth, lovingly crafted by the juniors, provided a backdrop for capturing cherished memories with friends and faculty members.

As the evening drew to a close, Prof. Swati Patil extended a heartfelt vote of thanks, marking the end of a memorable farewell party that will be fondly remembered by all who attended.
